A SERIOUS SPORTS PAGE

12/24/25

NEWS FROM A SERIOUS FOOTBALL LEAGUE

ISSUE 34

ASFL MANAGERS REMINISCE ON SUCCESSFUL SEASON

SUNNY DAY
CHUCK DOWNFIELD

With two weeks of post-season play already in the books and only one week remaining, ASFL managers are looking back fondly on a season full of exciting football. ASS Page reporters asked each manager to reflect on what they were proud of this year, beginning with Sam Shayer, who will compete for the title of Most Serious Football Team against Daniel Tribble this week. Said Shayer, "Credit goes to the guys out on the field... I gave them the challenge when it seemed all hope was lost and they rose up to meet it head on- apply directly to the forehead! Head On." His opponent, Tribble, said "I'm proud of balancing the work of being a top-tier manager with being league commissioner, all at the same time as being a devoted son, partner, step-father, and terrible friend." Last week's playoff losers (Coren Hucke and Alan Tribble) are both missing their times leading the league as they now face off for a third place finish. In the fifth place game, Mallory De-Santiago asked our interviewers, "Wait, so I just have to play Matt two weeks in a row? It's like no one even cares once you're eliminated." For his part, Matt said his favorite memory of the season was when RB Jonathan Taylor scored nearly 50 points and he felt sure he would get the win that week against Sam. "That's the last time I felt hope," he told our reporter while staring into the middle distance. In the consolation bracket, Kris Burney and Kaitlyn Vasey's teams are battling to decide who is the best of the worst. Vasey said her favorite memory of this season was "when I got an Etsy witch to place a hex on my enemies," which will surely not affect this week's outcome. The unlucky four bringing up the rear of the league this year are Melanie, Aaron, Dawn, and Beth, four managers who had some good times this year but are probably ready to move on to the off-season. Dawn Burney, playing to avoid last place, said her best memory was "beating Matt twice." Maybe the real fantasy is the friends we made along the way.

Apparently due to his busy schedule, commissioner Tribble never found time to update the championship trophy.

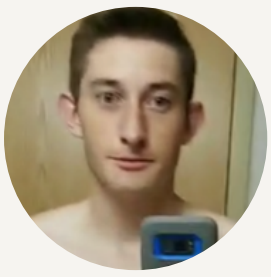
Featured Matchup: All Hope Is Lost vs Gundy Night Football

As Sam Shayer's team All Hope Is Lost and Daniel Tribble's team Gundy Night Football prepare to face off for the most anticipated game of the year, analysts are noticing several similarities between the two squads. Both teams hit a nadir after Week 9 of the regular season but then proceeded to go on 5-win runs to secure playoff spots. Over that stretch plus the two weeks of post-season play, Sam and Daniel have led the league in points scored with averages of 145 and 141 points per game, respectively. This column is almost out of space and I just realized I haven't done any jokes yet, so what's another similarity... oh I know, they're both gay! One of these two teams will emerge victorious this weekend as this year's Most Serious Football Team.

Noteworthies

Baller of the Week: WR Puka Nacua (4D), 46.5 pts

Puka Nacua, star receiver for Gundy Night Football, had a busy week. Before he lit up the Jasmine's Fav defense with a whopping 46.5 pts, he was in the headlines all week for scandals such as visiting a strip club ("I didn't know they were gonna do that") and kicking a puppy while live streaming on Instagram. Manager Daniel Tribble said he was "not concerned."

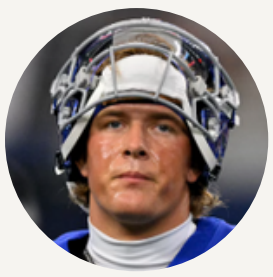


Walloping of the Week: Gundy Night Football defeats Jasmine's Fav

Daniel Tribble's team Gundy Night Football emerged from the bye week with a vengeance, notching a 175-point performance to defeat Alan Tribble's team Jasmine's Fav and advance to the championship. After the game, Daniel encountered Alan in an elevator and said "I feel bad for you," and Alan responded, "I don't think about you at all."

Nailbiter of the Week: All Hope Is Lost defeats Coren's Wet Supermen

The upset of the week was top-seeded Coren's Wet Supermen falling to Sam Shayer's All Hope Is Lost by fewer than five points, losing a chance at the title of Most Serious Football Team. "It's been so long, I almost forgot what losing feels like," said Hucke, who ended the regular season with a 7-game winning streak. "Lol," said Shayer in response, "Lmao, even."



Injury News of the Week: QB Jaxson Dart (SMEL) exits game early Smelly Team quarterback Jaxson Dart had only 0.02 points when he suffered an injury early in the game last week and had to leave. (Pretend this is a sports show broadcast and not a print publication.) Wait a second- I'm getting word in my earpiece that Jaxson Dart was not injured, in fact, he played the whole game but only scored 0.02 points. Terrible! Back to you.

Playoff Bracket

Round 1 (Wk 15)

(5) Disc Golf Lazarus
vs
(4) All Hope Is Lost

(6) Malpal's Boytoys
vs
(3) Jasmine's Fav

BYE

(8) The Girly Pops
vs
(7) Burney Bakery

(10) Smelly Team
vs
(9) Nova & the Krons

(12) Early Lightnings
vs
(11) Max the Manx

Round 2 (Wk 16)

(1) Wet Supermen
vs
(4) All Hope Is Lost

(3) Jasmine's Fav
vs
(2) Gundy Night

(6) Malpal's Boytoys
vs
(5) Disc Golf Lazarus

(10) Smelly Team
vs
(8) The Girly Pops

(12) Early Lightnings
vs
(7) Burney Bakery

(11) Max the Manx
vs
(9) Nova & the Krons

Round 3 (Wk 17)

(4) All Hope Is Lost
CHAMPIONSHIP
(2) Gundy Night

(3) Jasmine's Fav
CONSOLATION GAME
(1) Wet Supermen

(6) Malpal's Boytoys
PEAKED TOO EARLY BOWL
(5) Disc Golf Lazarus

(8) The Girly Pops
BEST BAD TEAM BOWL
(7) Burney Bakery

(10) Smelly Team
KIDS CALL THIS A MID-OFF
(9) Nova & the Krons

(12) Early Lightnings
BATTLE FOR NOT LAST
(11) Max the Manx